Certificate in Managing Occupational Health Services

26–28 February 2013: Central London, UK

A three-day course held in London from The At Work Partnership, run with the support of Brunel University School of Health Sciences and Social Care, and attended by delegates worldwide. It is designed to equip you with the essential management tools to deliver a successful occupational health (OH) service.

Over the past five years, hundreds of delegates have benefitted from attending the Certificate in Managing OH Services. Here are just a few of their comments:

“Outstanding! By far the best course, and the most relevant to OH Management I have ever attended”

Joanne Murphy, Skanska Rashleigh Weatherfoil

“Excellent course”

Dr Anatoly Chatokhine, BP – Russia & Caspian & N Africa

“By far the best professional training course I have attended in 23 years as an OH specialist practitioner. It is possible to teach an old dog new tricks and lots of them too – thank you!”

Graham Hayward, HMS Sultan (MOD)

For whom is the course designed?

The course is designed for occupational physicians, OH nurses and other professionals involved in the delivery and management of OH services. The course attracts a mixture of UK and international delegates.
