

After 34 years of dedicated service, Georgianna Oja will retire as Technical Editor of the Scandinavian Journal of Work, Environment & Health. Georgianna has been with the Journal since its inception in 1975 and has played an instrumental role in its development over the years. The Journal and its staff would like to thank Georgianna for her commitment, valuable expertise, and meticulous editing. She will be missed, but we hope she enjoys her well-deserved retirement.
